Job Title:	Night Support Worker	Post Holder:	Vacant
Reports To:	Group Services Manager	Location:	Limerick City
Salary:	This role is attached to a defined salary scale which ranges from $\in$ 32,190 to $\in$ 37,410 and appointments are made depending on experience.

Purpose of the Job

The role of Night Support Worker is vital to the successful delivery of quality programmes and services in NOVAS for our clients. The Night Support Worker will support the clients of the Limerick STA services.

The Night Support Worker will report directly to the Group Services Manager, will be a member of, and work collaboratively with the Limerick STA Services team, wider NOVAS services, external service providers and local authorities in the region. The Night Support Worker is responsible for supporting clients, monitoring client wellbeing, liaising with client key workers, responding and managing any incidents that arise during their shift. The Night Support Worker will ensure effective running of the service during the night, all aspects of health and safety, the hygiene and physical environment is kept to a high standard at times.

The role is situated in the Limerick STA Services. The Night Support Worker will cover 12 hrs night shifts over 7 days a week including weekends and bank holidays.

The Night Support Worker will have a minimum of Level 5 Professional Qualification or higher (National Framework of Qualifications) in Social Care or another allied health profession with training or experience in the areas of Homeless Services and will be expected to work within the relevant frameworks of quality standards or legislation.

This job description is a guide to the general range of duties assigned to the post holder. It is intended to be neither definitive nor restrictive and is subject to periodic review.

Environment of the Job

NOVAS is a not for profit organisation and Approved Housing Body, we work with single adults, couples and families, and who are homeless or at risk of being homeless. We also provide a service for unaccompanied minors seeking asylum. We provide a range of services and accommodation. Our first service was established in Limerick in 2002 which was a temporary low-threshold emergency homeless accommodation and we have grown from there. We now have over 300 staff, and more than 30 services in Limerick, Dublin, Clare, Kerry, and Cork and Tipperary including emergency homeless accommodation, transitional homeless accommodation, social housing and community based services for tenancy sustainment, homelessness prevention, mental health and recovery.

NOVAS is a Trauma Informed Practice Organisation, and the principles of collaboration, diversity, respect and trust are embedded in our way of working together.

Our services are provided through support of our partners in local government through the Local Authorities, HSE, and other donors and funders.

Delegation and Reporting

The Night Support Worker has decision-making remit for the areas of identifying appropriate housing and support needs in collaboration with clients and colleagues within the Limerick STA Services and local management team. In the absence of the Manager, or at other times, the Night Support Worker may be required to consult with the Senior Residential Services Manager, the Head of Operation or another member of the Senior Management Team Oversight for the work in this role is provided by the Quality Services Sub Committee of the NOVAS Board of Directors.

The Night Support Worker will at all times operate in a professional and respectful manner, maintaining high quality standards of work in accordance with the values and mission of NOVAS. Their decision making will, at all times, be informed by the best interests of the clients, ensuring cost effective value for money, use of donations and public money.

Challenges

The nature of our work involves supporting the most vulnerable people who often have complex needs and may be survivors of trauma. As a result, during the course of your work you may engage with sensitive and confidential matters that require empathy, compassion and pragmatism. You may also encounter clients or tenants who are in distress, displaying challenging behaviours or struggle to moderate their behaviour. Patience, respect and an ability to remain professional and focused on deescalating is essential. Further training will be provided in Trauma Informed Practice or Crisis Prevention.

As an organisation that is largely funded by public money, effective use of resources is a continuous focus and challenge.
