NOVAS is a not for profit organisation and Approved Housing Body. We work with single adults, couples and families who are homeless or at risk of being homeless. We provide a range of support services and accommodation. We have over 300 staff, and more than 30 services in Umeach, Dublin, Clara, Ferns, Cork and Tipperary including residential homeless services, social housing and community based services for tenancy sustainment, homelessness prevention, mental health and recovery.

NOVAS has been involved in service provision in the areas of emergency and long-term housing and family support in Ireland, for the past 24 years. St. Patrick's Hill is a 3 bed residential service that supports adults with disabilities to live in the community while developing skills to live independently.

NOVAS is a Trauma Informed practice organisation and the principles of collaboration, diversity, respect and trust are embedded in our way of working together. Our services are provided through support of our partners in local government through the Local Authorities, HSE, and other donors and funders.
