

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title:	Resettlement Officer	Post Holder:	DK
Reports To:	Project manager Bella House	Location:	Dublin – Bella House
Salary:	This role is attached to a defined salary scale which ranges from €36,890 to €45,210 and appointments are made depending on experience.

Purpose of the Job

The role of Resettlement Officer is vital to the successful delivery of quality programmes and services in NOVAS for our clients. The Resettlement Officer will support the clients of Bella House and at times, clients of the wider NOVAS services.

The Resettlement Officer will report directly to the Project Manager, will be a member of, and work collaboratively with the staff team in Bella House, wider NOVAS services and local authorities in the region. The Resettlement Officer is responsible for sourcing appropriate housing options for NOVAS clients in Bella House, supporting clients to move into and sustain their accommodation for a period of time. The Resettlement Officer will work with clients and their key workers to identify and develop independent living skills.

The role is situated in Drumcondra but will require travel as needed, to other locations where NOVAS services are located. This role requires some element of flexibility and adaptability to attend evening viewing appointments but the usual roster for this is 9am to 5pm, Monday to Friday.

The Resettlement Officer will have a background in Social Care, minimum level 7, with training or experience in the areas of Homeless Services and will be expected to work within the relevant frameworks of quality standards or legislation.

This job description is a guide to the general range of duties assigned to the post holder. It is intended to be neither definitive nor restrictive and is subject to periodic review.

Environment of the Job

NOVAS is a not for profit organisation and Approved Housing Body, we work with single adults, couples and families and who are homeless or at risk of being homeless. We also provide a service for unaccompanied minors seeking asylum. We provide a range of services and accommodation. Our first service was established in Limerick in 2002 which was a temporary low-threshold emergency homeless accommodation, and we have grown from there. We now have over 300 staff, and more than 30 services in Limerick, Dublin, Clare, Kerry, Cork and Tipperary including emergency homeless accommodation, transitional homeless accommodation, social housing and community-based services for tenancy sustainment, homelessness prevention, mental health and recovery.

NOVAS is a Trauma Informed Practice Organisation, and the principles of collaboration, diversity, respect, and trust are embedded in our way of working together.

Our services are provided through support of our partners in local government through the Local Authorities, HSE, and other donors and funders.

Delegation and Reporting

The Resettlement Officer has decision making remit for the areas of identifying appropriate housing in collaboration clients and colleagues within the service. In the absence of the Project Manager, or at times, the Resettlement Officer may be required to consult with and take direction from Senior Residential Services Manager or members of the Senior Management Team.

Oversight for the work in this role is provided by the Quality Services Sub Committee of the NOVAS Board of Directors.

The Resettlement Officer will at all times operate in a professional and respectful manner, maintaining high quality standards of work in accordance with the values and mission of NOVAS. Their decision making will at all times be informed by the best interests of the clients and ensuring cost effective value for money, use of donations and public money.

Challenges

The nature of our work involves supporting the most vulnerable people who often have complex needs and may be survivors of trauma. As a result, during the course of your work you may engage with sensitive and confidential matters that require empathy, compassion, and pragmatism. You may also encounter clients or tenants who are in distress, displaying challenging behaviours or struggling to moderate their behaviour. Patience, respect, and an ability to remain professional and focused on deescalating is essential. Further training will be provided in Trauma Informed Practice or Crisis Prevention.

As an organisation that is largely funded by public money, effective use of resources is a continuous focus and challenge.
