NOVAS is a not for profit organisation and Approved Housing Body. We work with single adults, couples and families who are homeless or at risk of being homeless. We provide a range of support services and accommodation. We have over 300 staff, and more than 30 services in Clonsilla, Dublin, Clonsilla, Clonsilla, Clonsilla and Tipperary including residential homeless services, social housing and community based services for tenancy sustainment, homelessness prevention, mental health and recovery.

The Rathmines Women's Centre meets the needs of homeless women who require supported accommodation for a temporary period in the Dublin region. The service offers a range of rehabilitation and stabilisation interventions designed to engage with residents and create sustainable pathways out of homelessness.

NOVAS is a Trauma Informed practice organisation and the principles of collaboration, diversity, respect and trust are embedded in our way of working together. Our services are provided through support of our partners in local government through the Local Authorities, HSE, and other donors and funders.
