Environment of the Job

NOVAS is a not-for-profit organisation and Approved Housing Body, we work with single adults, couples, and families, and who are homeless or at risk of being homeless. We also provide a service for unaccompanied minors seeking asylum. We support adults with disabilities and complex needs. We provide a range of services and accommodation. Our first service was established in Limerick in 2002 which was a temporary low-threshold emergency homeless accommodation and we have grown from there. We now have over 300 staff, and more than 30 services in Limerick, Dublin, Clare, Kerry, Cork, and Tipperary including emergency homeless accommodation, transitional homeless accommodation, social housing and community-based services for tenancy sustainment, homelessness prevention, mental health and recovery.

NOVAS is a Trauma Informed Practice Organisation, and the principles of collaboration, diversity, respect, and trust are embedded in our way of working together.

Our services are provided through support of our partners in local government through the Local Authorities, HSE, and other donors and funders.

Delegation and Reporting

The Deputy Manager has decision-making remit for the areas of identifying appropriate housing and support needs in collaboration clients and colleagues within the staff team, Project Manager, and the relevant Senior Residential Services Manager. In the absence of the Project Manager, or at times, the Deputy Manager may be required to consult with, and take direction from Head of Operations or the CEO.

Oversight for the work in this role is provided by the Quality Services Sub Committee of the NOVAS Board of Directors.

The Deputy Manager will at all times, operate in a professional and respectful manner, maintaining high quality standards of work in accordance with the values and mission of NOVAS. Their decision making will at all times be informed by the best interests of the clients and ensuring cost effective value for money, use of donations and public money.
