Job Title:	STA Night Worker	Post Holder:	Vacant
Reports To:	Service Manager	Location:	Limerick STA services
Salary:	€35,800 (fixed salary point)

Purpose of the Job

The role of STA Night Worker is vital to the successful delivery of safe and effective emergency homeless accommodation services in NOVAS for our McGarry House clients. The STA Night Worker will support the clients of the STA services in Limerick.

The STA Night Worker will report directly to the Service Manager, will be a member of, and work collaboratively with the McGarry House staff team, wider NOVAS services, external service providers and local authorities in the region. The STA Night Worker is responsible for waking night cover, supporting clients, monitoring client wellbeing, liaising with client key workers, responding and managing any incidents that arise. The STA Night Worker will ensure the safe and effective running of the service including keeping all aspects of health and safety, the hygiene and physical environment to a high standard at all times.

This role consists of night shift on a roster, commencing at 8pm and finishing at 8am.

The STA Night Worker will have a background in residential care ideally with experience of working in an emergency homeless service and will work within the relevant frameworks of quality standards or legislation.

This job description is a guide to the general range of duties assigned to the post holder. It is intended to be neither definitive nor restrictive and is subject to periodic review.

Environment of the Job

NOVAS is a not for profit organisation and Approved Housing Body, we work with single adults, couples and families, and who are homeless or at risk of being homeless. We also provide a service for unaccompanied minors seeking asylum. We provide a range of services and accommodation. Our first service was established in Limerick in 2002 which was a temporary low-threshold emergency homeless accommodation and we have grown from there. We now have over 300 staff, and more than 30 services in Limerick, Dublin, Clare, Kerry, Cork and Tipperary including emergency homeless accommodation, transitional homeless accommodation, social housing and community based services for tenancy sustainment, homelessness prevention, mental health and recovery.

NOVAS

Housing | Health | Recovery

NOVAS is a Trauma Informed Practice Organisation and the principles of collaboration, diversity, respect and trust are embedded in our way of working together.

Our services are provided through support of our partners in local government through the Local Authorities, HSE, and other donors and funders.

Delegation and Reporting

The STA Night Worker has decision making remit for the safety and wellbeing of residents in Limerick STA services through working in collaboration with colleagues in those services. In the absence of, or at times, the STA Night Worker may be required to consult with, and take direction from the Senior Residential Services Manager (West) or the Head of Operations.

Oversight for the work in this role is provided by the Quality Services Sub Committee of the NOVAS Board of Directors.

The STA Night Worker will at all times operate in a professional and respectful manner, maintaining high quality standards of work in accordance with the values and mission of NOVAS. Their decision making will at all times be informed by the best interests of the clients and ensuring cost effective value for money, use of donations and public money.

Challenges

The nature of our work involves supporting the most vulnerable people who often have complex needs and may be survivors of trauma. As a result, during the course of your work you may engage with sensitive and confidential matters that require empathy, compassion and pragmatism. You may also encounter clients or tenants who are in distress, displaying challenging behaviours or struggling to moderate their behaviour. Patience, respect and an ability to remain professional and focused on deescalating is essential. Further training will be provided in Trauma Informed Practice or Crisis Prevention.

As an organisation that is largely funded by public money, effective use of resources is a continuous focus and challenge.
