NOVAS is a not for profit organisation and Approved Housing Body. We work with single adults, couples and families who are homeless or at risk of being homeless. We provide a range of support services and accommodation. We have over 300 staff, and more than 30 services in Limerick, Dublin, Clare, Kerry, Cork and Tipperary including residential homeless services, social housing and community based services for tenancy sustainment, homelessness prevention, mental health and recovery.

The role of Outreach Worker is vital to the successful delivery of quality services in NOVAS for our clients. The Outreach Worker will support the clients of NOVAS Clare Emergency Accommodation and Settlement Support Service. This is a lone working service. The Outreach Worker is responsible for supporting clients to source appropriate housing and where possible independent living. This includes supporting client's development of life skills in the area of health, recovery, connection and justice system issues.

NOVAS is a Trauma Informed practice organisation and the principles of collaboration, diversity, respect and trust are embedded in our way of working together. Our services are provided through support of our partners in local government through the Local Authorities, HSE, and other donors and funders
